Please Note: The number of poll workers for an election is determined by the size of the election and the expected turnout. Poll workers are chosen to work a specific election by their availability, willingness to travel, and the number of workers needed. While we like to keep an election board constant throughout an election cycle, this often can not be done. Additionally, in an effort to keep the cost of an election down, traditionally low voter elections (Primaries, Special Elections, etc.) will have fewer number of workers. For these elections, we may often ask experienced poll workers to "sit-out," allowing newer poll workers an opportunity to gain more experience. If you are selected to work for an election, you will be notified by mail.

By signing this application, I agree to comply with all Florida Election laws including attendance of mandatory poll worker training classes. I certify that I am a registered voter in Manatee County and that I can read and write the English language (F.S. 102.012 (2)).
